

Fire-Fighter's Story

How the Strongest Man in the Philadelphia Fire Department—Once the Weakest—Gained His Strength and Health, by Using Swamp-Root the Great Kidney and Bladder Remedy.

HERE'S the story of a man who was near death's door and was saved by using Swamp-Root.

If he came to you and said: "My friend, do you suffer with kidney trouble? Does your back ache? Do you feel bad all over and can't tell exactly what's the matter? Have you tried medicines or doctors without benefit? Are you about discouraged? Then do as I did and get well—Use Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root! I know it will cure you."

If he did this, would you believe him? Would't you, if you were a sufferer, follow his advice, knowing that he bore living, sentient, vital testimony to the wonderful virtues of this great natural remedy?

WELL, that is just what Hugo Hutt, strongest man in the Philadelphia Fire Department, hero of a hundred battles with the flames, is doing now through the medium of the newspapers. Hugo Hutt has been connected with the Philadelphia Fire Department for the past four years. He is stationed at the engine-house at Nineteenth and Callowhill sts. Mr. Hutt is known as the strongest man in the Fire Department for his prowess in the field of sports.

He is also ex-sergeant of the United States Infantry, having for several years been stationed at Fort Niobrara, Neb. Mr. Hutt also served with the Sixth Pennsylvania Regiment during the Spanish-American war.

HUGO HUTT, PHILADELPHIA FIREMAN.

HERE is the story as he gave it to a special representative of Philadelphia's Great Newspaper, "The North American":

"You will hardly believe it when I tell you there was a time when my body was in such a diseased condition that my relatives and friends would have at no time been surprised to learn of my death. It was all due to kidney trouble, for which I could secure no relief. I was under the care of my family physician for a number of years, but he was unable to do me any good. I also consulted two noted specialists on kidney diseases, but they were unable to give me more than temporary relief. I had already made application to join the army, but was turned down on account of my bad physical condition.

"I was advised to try that greatest of all remedies—SWAMP-ROOT. "I wrote to Dr. Kilmer & Co., at Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle, and its effect upon me was so noticeable that I went immediately and bought a supply from my druggist, with the result that in a comparatively short time I had entirely recovered and became the man you see me now.

"I served a number of years in the army, and for the past four years I have been connected with the Philadelphia Fire Department. My work, both in the army and fighting fires in Philadelphia, has been of the most arduous, and work that I could not do, did I not have a strong physique.

"I do not know what the words 'Kidney Trouble' mean now, and do not expect to. I cannot speak too highly of Swamp-Root. A few bottles of this great remedy did more for me than a dozen physicians could."

(Signed) HUGO HUTT, 865 Sullivan St., Philadelphia, Pa.

AND this is only one man's story—if the average reader of a newspaper could be persuaded to read the thousands of such testimonials which come to Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the kidney troubles which now afflict humanity would be cut down fifty per cent.

WANTED BURDICK CALLED A SUICIDE

Physician Requested Medical Examiner to Report Death Thus, to Hush Scandal.

MOTHER-IN-LAW QUESTIONED.

Her Story of Finding Dead Man's Body Contradicted in Part by Cook—Calm Under Severe Test.

Buffalo, March 14—The inquest into the murder of Edwin L. Burdick was begun in the police court here today before Judge Murphy.

Among the first witnesses to appear were Mrs. Seth T. Paine; Miss Barrett, the stenographer who boards with Mrs. Paine; and A. Carlson, another boarder at the Paine residence. Mrs. Paine was accompanied by counsel. Only one witness at a time was admitted into the courtroom. Doctor Howland, assistant medical examiner, was the first witness. He handed to Judge Murphy the report of the medical examiner on the death of Burdick, which stated the cause of the suicide theory for the crime.

"Under the law, we are compelled to hold this inquest," said Judge Murphy. "We charge no one with this crime. The purpose of this investigation is to lay this crime, if possible, at the door of some one."

Doctor Howland was examined by District Attorney Coatsworth. He said he had been summoned to the Burdick home by telephone on the morning of February 27. Doctor W. H. Marcy met him at the door and told him that "something had been going on there and that Mr. Burdick was dead."

"I am not sure," continued Doctor Howland, "but I think he told me that he was not certain whether it was murder or suicide. He asked me to make it out as a case of suicide if possible, as there has been a good deal of gossip in the neighborhood respecting the relations existing between Mr. and Mrs. Burdick."

LEARNED OF DIVORCE SUIT. The witness said he then examined the body and told Marcy that it was impossible to entertain the suicide theory for a minute. Asked as to what further conversation he had with Doctor Marcy, the witness said the former told him of the divorce proceedings in the Burdick family.

Doctor Howland repeated the conversation he had with Mrs. Hull as to the finding of the body of Burdick, the finding of a window open, the fact that there were no tracks in the snow outside the window and the finding of the open drawer.

CHAMBERLAIN IS ROYALLY WELCOMED

England's Colonial Secretary Returns From South Africa Looking Thin and Older.

BRITAIN'S EMPIRE STATESMAN.

This Motto Greeted Him on Landing at Southampton—Premier Balfour and Entire Cabinet Meet Him at Station.

London, March 14—"Southampton welcomed home Britain's Empire statesman," in huge letters surrounded and intertwined with Union Jacks and Stars and Stripes, was the motto that first greeted Colonial Secretary Chamberlain and Mrs. Chamberlain on landing at Southampton today from South Africa.

The travelers had a magnificent greeting. The quays were elaborately decorated, the ships were dressed in rainbow fashion and the quays were lined with the blowing of whistles and sirens greeted the liner Norman as she passed up Southampton water with Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain, accompanied by Lord Selborne, First Lord of the Admiralty, standing on the promenade deck.

As soon as the steamer was warped to her dock Mr. Chamberlain's family went on board the Norman. They were shortly afterwards followed by the Mayor and Corporation of Southampton, who welcomed the travelers.

TRIUMPHAL PROCESSION. The Mayor's daughter then handed a bouquet to Mrs. Chamberlain and a procession was formed, with the Mayor and Mrs. Chamberlain leading, and Mr. Chamberlain and the Mayor's daughter coming after them, and walked through cheering crowds to the reception hall.

Mr. Chamberlain was bronzed, but looked very thin and appeared to have aged considerably. He showed evident pleasure at the heartiness of the welcome. The party then entered carriages and drove through the thronged and decorated streets to Hartley Hall, the scene of so many previous functions connected with the South African war.

There an address of welcome was presented to Mr. Chamberlain, who, in the course of his reply, warned the country not to overestimate the results he had actually achieved. He was hopeful, and even confident, that the Dutch of South Africa would hereafter loyally take their place as members of the Empire to which they now belonged, but he could not be expected that the long record of vacillation and weakness which led to the war would be wiped out in the twinkling of an eye.

GIVES PRAISE TO HIS WIFE. Subsequently, Mr. Chamberlain and his party took a train to London, where a large crowd awaited their arrival. Premier Balfour and practically the whole Cabinet were present at Waterloo railroad station to meet Mr. Chamberlain. The greetings which he received were everywhere most cordial.

Mr. Chamberlain came in for a full share of the welcome. Special cheers were given for her and in the greeting of the deputations from Birmingham, which went out to meet the Norman in the Solent, she was specially mentioned. Referring to this in the course of the reply to the Birmingham delegation, Mr. Chamberlain said: "I thank you very much for including, as indeed, you should, the name of my wife. It is true that her companionship has been of the greatest assistance to me. Indeed, I hardly know how I could have got through the great task I undertook but for her cooperation."

NEGRO HERB DOCTOR EMPLOYED BY WOMEN TO COMMIT MURDER

Philadelphia Police Believe They Have Uncovered an Appalling Series of Crimes.

DISCLOSURES ARE JUST BEGUN.

George Hossey's Headquarters Were Patronized for Many Months by Married and Single Women.

MUCH EVIDENCE IS SECURED.

Wagonload of Drugs, Instruments and Other Paraphernalia and Important Memoranda Seized at His House After His Arrest.

Philadelphia, March 14.—The police for several days have been investigating the career of George Hossey, the negro "herb doctor," who was yesterday committed to prison with Mrs. Catherine Denze on the charge of causing the death of the woman's husband eighteen months ago by poison. Mrs. Denze is said to be only one of a host of women whose object in consulting the "doctor" was not legitimate.

The authorities say that they expect to trace a number of deaths to Hossey's potions.

One official said today: "We are only beginning to uncover this case. It may prove one of the greatest criminal events in the history of the department."

Hossey is the arch conspirator in many of the authorities say. They have learned that for many months past his headquarters have been patronized by many women, both married and single, whose names are now in the possession of the District Attorney.

When the negro was arrested, detectives searched his house and confiscated a wagonload of bottled drugs, instruments and other paraphernalia, much of which will figure in the case.

The District Attorney and the police state that more arrests may be expected soon. The memorandum found in Hossey's house, it is believed, will show many cases of murder. The Assistant District Attorney said:

"The case is far from complete at present. More arrests will follow, but naturally we cannot talk about that phase of the case at this time.

The developments of yesterday are only a small part of the case as far as Hossey is concerned. The detectives are still at work on the investigation and will continue for several weeks."

Mr. Louis Thole, formerly with the J. H. Crane Furniture Co., is now interested in the Georgia-Stinson Furniture and Carpet Co., 616-618 Washington street, where he will be pleased to meet his friends.

KING EDWARD SEES BUFFALO BILL'S WILD WEST SHOW. Entrance is Greeted by Cheers From the Audience.

London, March 14—King Edward and Queen Alexandra, Prince and Princess Charles of Denmark, Princess Victoria, Princess Victoria of Wales, Prince George and Prince Henry of Wales, Lord Knollys, Secretary to the King, and Lady Knollys; Sir Dighton Probyn, Keeper of the Privy Purse and Extra Equerry to the King and others, attended Buffalo Bill's Wild West show at the Olympia this afternoon.

An elaborate new royal box fronting the arena had been especially constructed for the occasion. The old royal box was occupied by Mr. Choate, the American Ambassador, and Mrs. Choate; Mr. Henry White, Secretary of the American Embassy, and Mrs. White; and the Hon. Richard Croker and Mr. Henry Clay Evans.

Unusual preparations had been made in the decoration of the lobby and the customary red carpet, and cheering as they entered, Colonel Cody, at the head of the rough riders, led more cheering for the royal party as he entered the arena. The King stood up and bowed his acknowledgments.

ESTRANGED BY MISCHIEFMAKER Husband and Wife Separated by Neighbor's Falsehoods.

Grand Rapids, Mich., March 14—A woman neighbor, 12 years ago, convinced the wife of Wilson McIntyre, then a traveling man living in Milwaukee, that her husband was leading a double life, and during his absence she packed her effects and returned to the home of her parents in Buffalo.

When McIntyre returned home to find his wife gone, the same woman told him that his wife had eloped with another man. He wrote to her parents in Buffalo and his letters were returned uncanceled. He made no effort to follow his wife, and when he heard she was living in Indianapolis he did not go near there.

Recently he discovered he had been deceived and, communicating with his wife, learned that she was dying of consumption. He left for Indianapolis last night to see her.

COLLEGE PROFESSORS

Talk of Foods.

The New York papers recently contained a long account of the so-called discovery of a celebrated professor in one of the land-grant universities. The "discovery" related to a new and successful way of treating part by dry baking, so it would be made more digestible and nutritious. Thereupon Professor Livingston, commenting on the discovery of the other professor, says, "A discoverer who was a business man first and a scientist afterwards, found that such foods could be made more digestible when cooked with dry heat instead of by boiling in water, and he already placed on the market the food which he discovered prior to Dr. Peck's." This refers to Grape-Nuts, the most scientifically made food known. Grape-Nuts can be easily digested by babies or anyone with a weak stomach and the food contains the most powerful rebuilding element known, particularly as it is a delicious food, requiring no cooking but ready for instant service, just as it comes from the package. A recipe book free in each package contains many delicious dishes made from Grape-Nuts.

A Half Million People

Wrote Me and Got Well.

And I took the entire risk. They simply gave me their addresses and stated which book they needed.

That is all I ask of you. I will then mail you an order on your druggist for six bottles Dr. Sheop's Restorative. You may take it a month on trial. If it succeeds, the cost is $5.50. If it fails, I will pay the druggist myself. And your mere word shall decide it.

I have the records of nearly 550,000 sick ones who have accepted that offer. They were all different cases—some of them desperate. People don't write me about mild attacks. They buy one or two bottles, get well, and I never hear from them. Yet 39 out of each 40 who secured these six bottles paid for them gladly, because they were cured.

On January 11, 1903, I published in the Chicago papers the names and addresses of one thousand people in that city alone whom I had cured of chronic diseases in just the past six months.

I need not tell you that no other remedy ever made a record like that. And no other remedy for chronic diseases could be supplied on an offer like mine, without ruining the man who made it.

The reason for it all is that my Restorative strengthens the inside nerves. It brings back the power that operates the vital organs. It is the result of my lifetime's work.

Common treatments fail because they aim to doctor the organ that is weak, and such results at best are but temporary. A weak organ must have more nerve power, just as a weak engine must have more steam. And that is all that is needed—all that medicine can do.
